HOW TO SOLVE

FIND THE WORDS. FOLLOW THE CLUES. CRACK THE CASE.

The Killer Is Here, hidden somewhere, and only you can find them.

Fresh out of the prestigious D.E.A.D. (Deduction & Evidence Analysis Department)—where the coffee was terrible but the lectures on suspicious behavior were excellent—you are finally ready to enter the real world and fulfill your dream of solving its most peculiar crimes.

From this moment on, armed with nothing but sharp eyes, relentless attention to detail, a gifted deductive mind, and a highlighter, your job is to uncover four essential truths in every case:

- * The victim — the one who didn't make it out
- * The location — one of four possible scenes where it all happened
- * The killer — still blending in with the suspects
- * The weapon — an ordinary object turned deadly

Finding the six objects and six suspects hidden across the four scenes is only the beginning. To solve each mystery completely, observation alone won't be enough. You'll need to connect clues, follow the logic, and piece together the full story hidden inside the puzzle.

That's why, before sending you out into the field, your superiors made sure one lesson was burned into your mind:

"Any crime is obvious... if you just follow the same

FIVE INFALLIBLE STEPS "

Every detective needs a first case. Start with Case Zero — a fully solved example you can follow step by step.

STEP 1: SCAN THE SCENE

Find all listed words (6 pieces of evidence and 6 suspects) hidden across the four grids.

NOTE: Each suspect appears in two different scenes, so every suspect must be found twice.

STEP 2: SPOT THE WEAPON

Only one object appears twice among the six pieces of evidence — that is the weapon used in the crime.

WEAPON: POISON

STEP 3: TRACK THE KILLER

The killer is the only suspect who appears in both scenes where the weapon is found.

KILLER: BUTLER

STEP 4: DECODE THE VICTIM

Locate the circled letters across the grids.
Select the ones not used in any word, then rearrange them to reveal the victim's identity.

VICTIM: LORD BLAKE

STEP 5: PINPOINT THE CRIME

Now that you know the victim, find their name in the grids.
The scene where the victim appears is where the crime took place.
