DETECTIVE BRIEFING

CHOOSE YOUR AGENCY. FOLLOW THE CLUES. CRACK THE CASE.

The Killer Is Here, and your reputation is growing.

After solving dozens of mysteries and exposing countless killers, you've started attracting attention from some very important people.

Your success has attracted the attention of two legendary organizations: F.O.X. and O.W.L., the world's most prestigious detective agencies. Their rivalry is famous. Their methods are different. And each is convinced it is superior to the other.

Before continuing, choose an agency and sign beside its emblem.

A secret bonus mission awaits near the end of this book. When the time comes, your choice of agency may prove more important than you think. Until then, don't peek ahead.

Your mission remains unchanged. Discover:

- * The victim — the one who didn't make it out
- * The location — one of four possible scenes where it all happened
- * The killer — still blending in with the suspects
- * The weapon — an ordinary object turned deadly

And never forget the lesson that got you this far:

"Any crime is obvious... if you just follow the same

FIVE INFALLIBLE STEPS "

Every detective needs a first case. Start with Case Zero — a fully solved example you can follow step by step.

STEP 1: SCAN THE SCENE

Find all listed words (6 pieces of evidence and 6 suspects) hidden across the four grids.

NOTE: Each suspect appears in two different scenes, so every suspect must be found twice.

STEP 2: SPOT THE WEAPON

Only one object appears twice among the six pieces of evidence — that is the weapon used in the crime.

WEAPON: POISON

STEP 3: TRACK THE KILLER

The killer is the only suspect who appears in both scenes where the weapon is found.

KILLER: BUTLER

STEP 4: DECODE THE VICTIM

Locate the circled letters across the grids.
Select the ones not used in any word, then rearrange them to reveal the victim's identity.

VICTIM: LORD BLAKE

STEP 5: PINPOINT THE CRIME

Now that you know the victim, find their name in the grids.
The scene where the victim appears is where the crime took place.

INVESTIGATION BREAK

A brief pause in your investigation.

Step back for a second—how are your detective skills holding up so far? You’ve already started uncovering clues, connecting patterns, and seeing what others might miss. Not bad at all.

Are you enjoying the hunt?

If the answer is yes, I’d like to ask for a small favor.

I’m an independent creator building puzzle books for curious minds like yours—and your feedback genuinely helps keep these cases coming.

If you have a moment, please consider leaving a review on Amazon.

Or, if you prefer, share your progress online and tag @brain_workout_books.

Every review helps. Every mention matters. Every detective counts.

Now, enough of this interruption.

There are still cases to solve... and the killer is still out there.
